

REA mission to Karaganda

April 24 – May 01, 2004

Participants from REA: Yuri Matveev, Georgiy Geletukha

Participants from Ecomuseum: Yulia Kalmykova, Dima Kalmykov, Sergey Zhukov

Apr 25, 2004. Sunday	Arrival to Karaganda
Apr 25, 2004. Sunday afternoon	Opening meeting Preparation of the Monday seminar presentations and release
Apr 26, 2004. Monday	Seminar in Karaganda university (see agenda in separate file) Duration – 6 hours, 6 presentation, 30 participants from municipality, university and local entities, TV and newspapers
Apr 27, 2004. Tuesday	Discussion of the project status and current mission planning Discussion of the small BGP construction manual preparation Discussion of the biogas projects at Karaganda landfill and poultry farm Training of the EM staff in seminar and conference preparation
Apr 28, 2004 Wednesday	Visit to poultry farm in Maykuduk region (suburb of Karaganda). Discussions with Company Director and Chief Engineer Data collection and ideas exchange

Apr 29, 2004 Thursday	Visit to Karaganda municipal solid waste (MSW) landfill, Discussions with the Director of the municipal waste handling company and Director of landfill operating company Data collection and ideas exchange
Apr 29, 2004 Thursday	Visit to small biogas plant constructed by Ecomuseum within previous World Bank project
Apr 29, 2004 Thursday	Visit to small biogas plant constructed by Ecomuseum within previus BGP (45 m<sup>3</sup> digester) in village Novodolinka, 40 km from Karaganda. BGP was constructed and then modernized by Ecomuseum in the small private farm Farm (6 pigs, 12 cows, 14 goats, 3 horses)
Apr 30, 2004 Friday	Departure to Astana (200 km from Karaganda)
May 01, 2004 Saturday	Travel from Astana to Kiev		